Subject: Re: Dated Notice - GTW - Request for fee waiver - action today is required

I understand.

I squeezed my budget to pay the $1200 filing fee for my request for withdrawal early this year.

I tried hard to squeeze my budget subsequent to your email below but it just would not squeeze enough to generate a second $1200 this year.

Your email does stimulate the questions below that I hope you can answer.

Is there any document about "ANSI's established practice as it relates to the hardship exemption" you can share?

What are the numbers for requests to ANSI for waiver of filing fees associated with appeals since ANSI first established the fees?

What are the numbers of ANSI denials for these?

What are the numbers of ANSI approvals for these?

What are the numbers for requests to ANSI for waiver of filing fees associated with requests to BSR for withdrawal for cause of an ANS since ANSI first established the fees?

What are the numbers of ANSI denials for these?

What are the numbers of ANSI approvals for these?

Thank you
